

VFW YOUTH ACTIVITIES CHAIRMAN'S MANUAL

The Role of the Chairman

VFW's chairmen do more than just plan projects to improve their communities. They also recruit volunteers, build relationships with community leaders, organize partnerships with civic groups and promote the VFW.

You Are the Point Person

A program chairman should understand one important fact right from the outset: You are the Post's point man in your community. As chairman you will be your Post's liaison to:

- school teachers and administrators
- community leaders
- local military personnel
- city government officials
- members of civic groups
- members of the media
- your fellow veterans

Seek out these new relationships. When it comes time to recruit volunteers or you need specialized expertise for Post projects, these community contacts will prove invaluable.

Project an outgoing, friendly personality. Speak positively about your Post, your community and your projects. Articulate your thoughts and plans clearly, concisely and coherently. Remember, you represent not only your Post, but the entire VFW organization as well.

Reporting Your Activities

You may have heard it said that "the job's not over until the paperwork is done!" That is especially true of VFW Programs.

Chairman must report their Post activities in their respective areas at least twice each year. Check with your respective Department chairman to learn what should be reported and in what form. Documentation of your programmatic efforts is the thing that ensures the VFW's reputation and our not-for-profit status.

Master Organizational Skills

As chairman, your talents must be varied. Consequently, your organizational skills should be fully developed.

Some of your specific duties include:

- ✓ recruiting and maintaining a pool of active volunteers
- ✓ identifying and initiating programs needed in your community
- ✓ motivating your Post members, community volunteers and sponsors involved in your various projects
- ✓ recognizing your volunteers efforts
- ✓ organizing and maintaining records, photos and newspaper clippings the document your activities
- ✓ reporting to your Department chairman the volunteer hours, dollars donated by VFW, Ladies Auxiliary, Cooties, Junior Girls and Men's Auxiliary members and other information requested.

Through the contacts you've developed in your community, cooperate with other civic or fraternal groups. They may already be involved in community service programs you would like to undertake, or they may be eager to help with projects that you've planned. Also identify resources at your Post, talk with members and find out what special skills or hobbies they may have.

SCOUTING & JROTC (Junior Reserve Officer Training Course)

Why should a Post become involved?

Few youth programs provide a greater benefit to a Post than involvement with a Scouting or JROTC unit. Both programs annually produce individuals with an appreciation for patriotism, civic responsibility and the likelihood of future military service. As Scouts, Sea Scouts, Venture Scouts and JROTC cadets; these individuals are often a tremendous asset to a Post by helping with Post projects such as placing flags on graves on Veterans Day and Memorial Day, helping with Post maintenance and fix-up efforts, helping distribute Buddy Poppies, providing color guards and assisting with VFW public events.

As young adults, participants in these programs are much more likely than others of their age group to enter the military and, ultimately become eligible for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

How does a Post become involved?

VFW Posts should request a brochure entitled, "Building a Foundation of Respect," by calling the VFW Programs office at 816-968-1117 or e-mailing a request to <mailto:swilson@vfw.org>. This simple brochure explains the working relationship between the VFW and the BoyScouts of America, (B.S.A.). The last page of the brochure lists the ten steps to organizing a Scout unit. In the case of JROTC, a VFW need only contact a local JROTC unit or their state's Adjutant to get involved.

Aside from sponsoring or chartering a unit, there are literally hundreds of ways for a Post to serve the youth in their community through Scouting and JROTC and reap the benefits. Your Post may have individuals who would like to serve as leaders. Your Post may be able to serve as a meeting place or a place for a drill team to practice. Your Post may wish fund a unit or individual project. In turn, Scouts and cadets can fulfill their community service and civic requirements by helping with Post projects. It is truly a win-win situation for the Post and the youth of your community.

So, what do I do now?

For Scouting, you will be put in touch with the member or members of the VFW National Scouting Team in your Department. These are VFW members who are heavily involved in Scouting and have committed themselves to growing Scouting within their respective Departments. They will be happy to assist your Post and its members in becoming involved with this important youth program.

For JROTC, the VFW Programs Office will help you identify a JROTC unit in your area or connect with your state's Adjutant to learn how you can work with the unit to benefit your Post and serve the youth of your community better.

Youth Cadet Awards Program

VFW awards for special recognition of outstanding achievement and exceptional leadership are available for Junior and Senior ROTC programs, Naval Sea Cadets and Civil Air Patrol Cadets. If any of these programs exist in your community, these awards provide your Post an outstanding opportunity to honor these patriotic young people.

Awards Administration

Cadet awards may be initiated by the local VFW Post or directly by the cadet's unit. In either case, documentation should come from the unit as follows:

- Naval Sea Cadets – from the unit commanding officer in a letter with copy to NSCC HQ.
- Civil Air Patrol Cadets, from the candidate's squadron by submitting a CAPF-120.
- JROTC/SROTC Cadets – from the unit by submitting a letter documenting the criteria.

All letters of nomination should be sent to:

OTHER YOUTH ACTIVITIES

VFW's history with youth sports goes back many decades. VFW formerly offered one of the largest marble tournaments in the U.S. Although marble shooting has become a lost ability, VFW Posts have supported youth with team and individual sports like competitive shooting, ice hockey, baseball, basketball, softball, boxing, wrestling, and almost any sport you can name.

Like most VFW Post activities, the key is to identify an interest or need in the youth of your community and offer your Post and its members are a resource. Efforts can be as brief as raising a few dollars to provide equipment to sponsoring a team and providing coaches. The purpose of all these endeavors is two-fold.

First, it encourages young people to pursue physical activity that also builds character. Second, it connects young people with America's veterans and their families thereby providing an opportunity to pass on our values of service, civic responsibility and patriotism to the next generation. These kinds of connections also offer a tremendous opportunity to promote our scholarship programs.

Various states have a history of VFW involvement in youth sports. Check with your Department office to determine what other Posts are doing and how your Post can become involved.

YOUTH HUNTING AND SHOOTING PROGRAMS

VFW has been involved with the National Rifle Association (NRA) since 1920. Through the NRA, hundreds of VFW Posts provide hunter safety courses and sponsor shooting competitions. Annually, VFW and NRA offer junior and adult small-bore rifle and air rifle matches conducted by mail called "postal matches." To find out how your Post can participate contact one or both of the following:

SONS OF THE VFW

In 1941, a few months before the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor, VFW appointed Gene Tunney as national director of Youth Activities. One of America's best-known and respected sports figures, Tunney retired as heavyweight boxing champion of the world in 1928. He was a Marine in France during World War I, and was a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve.

Tunney said: "I have accepted the appointment because I am convinced that the sons and daughters of the veterans of our country's wars are best fitted to serve as crusaders in the battles against them enemies of America's democracy. They, as well as other youngsters in every VFW community, must be trained and inspired as guardians of our American inheritance. They are ready to accept any task assigned – we need only to give these youngsters a chance to absorb the true significance of Americanism."

Tunney's ideas were part and parcel of the Sons of the VFW, a youth program that has had its ups and downs since it was founded in 1934. Sons, stepsons and adopted sons of VFW members were eligible if they were between the ages of 8 and 18. By 1939, there were 25,000 members on the rolls. Emphasis was placed on patriotism and community service.

Today, more than 600 units are under the sponsorship of Posts in nearly every Department.

Scout of the Year Scholarships

Annually, the Veterans of Foreign Wars recognizes three individuals: Eagle Scouts, Venture Silver Award recipients or Sea Scout Quartermasters who have risen above their peers in exemplifying the exceptional qualities of that rank with the following:

- $5,000 1st place scholarship
- $3,000 2nd place scholarship
- $1,000 3rd place scholarship

To be eligible for the award, the candidate must:

- Be a registered, active member of a Boy Scout Troop, Venturing Crew or Sea Scout Ship.
- Be the recipient of the Eagle Scout Award, Venture Silver Award or Quartermaster Award.
- Have demonstrated exemplary citizenship in school, Scouting and community.
- Have reached his or her 15th birthday and be enrolled in high school at the time of selection.
- Have submitted a complete entry form to a VFW Post in his or her community.

Applicants still in high school who reach their 18th birthday during the nomination year remain eligible if otherwise qualified. A Scout may enter through only one VFW Post. A sponsoring Post can be located by contacting the respective VFW Department (state) Headquarters as listed on the VFW web site:

www.vfw.org

Deadline for entries:

March 1 — Entry to the Post.

April 1 — Submission to Department Scouting Team member from Post.

May 1 — Submission to national organization from Department Scouting Team member.

Candidate entry forms are available from your Department Scouting Team member or by calling 816-756-3390, ext.220.

Required Documentation

The following documentation should be attached to the candidate's entry form:

Photograph of the Scout in complete uniform for their current rank.

High School Participation Record — a single page, one side resume of the candidate's high school activities listing offices held, honors received and significant participation in other activities.

Scouting Record — maximum of three pages, one side only listing of all Scouting participation beginning with Cub Scouts to include years of participation, unit numbers and sponsors. Also include when Eagle, Silver or Quartermaster Award was received and Palms. Identify leadership positions held at all levels, participation in Scouting activities (jamborees, Order of the Arrow conferences, etc.) and the candidate's Eagle Scout, Venture or Quartermaster Project.

Community Service Record — a single page, one side resume listing participation in community and religious service organizations (excluding Scouting and school), noting leadership positions held and any recognition received.

Letters of Recommendation — A maximum of five letters, none exceeding two pages, will be judged. The five letters must include one each from a representative of the school, community and a Scout leader. The two additional letters should be from members of the local community who have special knowledge of the candidate's abilities and/or accomplishments.

VFW NATIONAL SCOUTING TEAM

The backbone of Scouting in the VFW is the VFW National Scouting Team. These are VFW members who are also deeply involved in Scouting, most for decades.

Appointed by their Department Commander, they are responsible for promoting Scouting in their state. They are available to encourage Posts to sponsor units, support units and individual Scout projects. They should be the Department's "expert" on all phases of Scouting. Many Departments have multiple members of the VFW National Scouting Team but every Department should have at least one individual to promote the values of Scouting to youth and to the VFW itself. For more information on the VFW National Scouting Team call 816-968-1116 or e-mail svanbuskirk@vfw.org.
